CITY INTELLIGENCE. RODEF SHALOM.

The New Mynngogue at the Corner of Broad and Mount Verson Streets-Its Opening To-

The new synagogue of the German Hebrew congregation, "Roder shalom," will be formally dedicated to-morrrw (Friday) afternoon, the services beginning at 4 o'clock. A neat invitation has been gotten up and sent to those for whom they are intended, with cards of admission inclosed. These are necessary to obtain entrance to the building. The committee of arrangements are as follows:— The committee of arrangements are as follows:

David Teller, J. Langsdorf, M. Siedenbach, Isaac
May, Mason Hirsh, Levi Mayer, Louis Lipser, and Alexander Reinstine. The services will be conducted by a large number of rabbl, and a much angmented choir, forming a large and well-balanced chorns, will render the musical portions.

The new building is in the Moorish Gothic style, and the designs have been carried out very completely in every particular. The building haelf is eighty-three feet in width on Broad street, and one hundred and eighty-four feet in length on Mount Vernon street. The Bened street from the Mount Vernon street. The Broad street front to the point is eighty feet in height. There is now being erected on the corner of the two streets a stone tower, which, when completed, will be one hundred and twenty-five feet in height. It will be surmounted with a dome colored in blue and gold. The walls are of sandstone, and the trimmings are of Eleveland sandstone and Seneca stone alternated m different parts so as to produce a rich effect.

On either side of the main doorway are pillars of polished Aberdeen granite, imported directly from and polished in Scotland. The cutting of the ornamental stone-work in intricate figures is very beau-tiful. The interior is finished with handsome frescoing in crimson blue and gold from the floor to the peak of the roof. The windows are of pressed stained glass set in lead and mounted directly into the stone-work. The scating capacity on the main soor is 1642, and that of the galleries 363. The shrine is covered with a massive dome of polished bronze, supported by seven bronze columns. The gas fixtures are in red and blue enamel, with gilt, gas fixtures are in red and blue enamel, with gilt, and two golden candlesticks of eight lights each will be on either side of the holy ark. The total cost of the synagogue will be about $250,000. The cost of the building alone, without furnishing and without the lot, was about $150,000. The dedication takes place now, so that the building may be ready for service during the coming Jewish holidays, which begin about the 26th inst.

-In the summer our park on moonlight nights is crowded with love-lorn couples. But on the first touch of colder weather it is visited by but few, and bouch of colder weather it is visited by but few, and they leave early. Ten o'clock nowadays, in the most pleasant season of the year, finds the park entirely described. The hapless strayers after that date, after meandering their solitary course to the Brown street gate, are surprised to find the beer garden closed, the last car gone, and all in darkness and desolation. They have then the choice of threading the doubtful ways of Brown street to the depot, of walking the Reading Railroad track to Coates street, or of retracing their steps into the park in order to reach the same goal by a roundpark in order to reach the same goal by a round-about way. One would naturally think that this would not be so. Does not the cool weather give would not be so. Does not the cool weather give better advantages for wrapping two persons in the same shawl or of coming close together to keep warm? Perhaps it does. Then, alas! it must be that but few want to some close together, or be shelthat but lew want to some close together, or be sheltered by the same shawl. Or, perhaps the same thing can now be done with comfort within doors, which before could not on account of the hot weather. If this be so, of course it is unnecessary to trouble oneself to go as far as the park. The advantages of scenery are but as one in the scale. Who indeed wants them without something more substantial, or at least something more satisfactory to the female mind?

The Append Parade of the American Protestant Association—An Imposing Display.

The regular annual parade of the American Protant Association took place this morning. The members of the order have been making extensive preparations for months past for this display, and their labors resulted in the finest turnout ever made, both in point of numbers and attractions. From early dawn to 100 clock the streets in the various parts of the city have been crowded with the dir-ferent organizations and their friends on the way

At 9 c'clock the first association made its appearance on Broad street, and attracted considerable attention. In another half bour the line was formed, and moved down Broad street, and counter-marching on that thoroughfare, preceded by a mounted detail of the Reserve Corps under Lieutenant Errickson, of the Second district. Then followed a squad of the Eleventh district force, under Lieutenant Richard Pritchard. This line extended from curb to curb, and experienced great difficulty in pressing back the masses which line both sides of the various thoroughfares through which the procession passed. The order was as fellows:-

The banner of Star of Bethlehem Lodge was a representation of the child in the manger. Israelite Lodge's banner contained the inscription, "Justice to all men, and this we will support." That of William Penn Lodge represented the treaty grounds on the banks of the Delaware. Those of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania contained respectively the coat of arms of the city and State. That of Ashland Lodge was a bust of the sage of Ashland. of Ashland Lodge was a bust of the sage of Ashland. That of David Lodge represented David in the act of severing the head of Goliath from the body. That of Conshohocken Lodge represented the Caucasian instructing the other races. That of Ark of Safety Lodge represented Moses offering up sacrifices; while that of Moses Lodge was a fine painting of Moses on the Mount receiving the tables. Among the Mount receiving the tables.

Among the many other features which served to break the monotony of a long line of men were twenty-five representations of Indians, who were with William Penn Lodge. These gentlemen created considerable amusement along the route, and among their antics was an imitation war-dance while on the march. Among this party were also men dressed in the garb of Friends and sallors. Pennsylvania Lodge also had a turn-out of Indians, but they were mounted and had to content them-selves with striking spectators over the head with bladders tied to a stick

The display of the Juniors formed the interesting part of the turnout, and they deserve great credit for the care which has been taken in completing their arrangements. They were represented in strong numbers, and had their forces divided about equally between pioneers dressed in various tasty uniforms and members in regalia.

The line having marched down Chesnut street, proceeded down Second to Christian, up Christian to Twelfth, up Twelfth to Fitzwater, up Fitzwater

TRADE FROM DULUTH.—To-day the first shipment of flour from Minnesota by way of Duluth is arriving by the Pensylvania Railroad. The shipment consists of 500 barrels, consigned to the enterprising firm of H. H. Mears & Son, on South Delaware avenue. It left St Paul on the 27th of August, coming to Duluth ever the new railroad lately completed by our Philadelphia capitalists, Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., and their associates. From Duluth it came by Evans' line of propellers to Erie, in this came by Evans line of propellers to Erie, in this State, and thence to this city. This new route puts Minnesota as near to us in freighting her products as the region around Chicago, for the distance run by the propeller on the lakes is the same as though she had come from Chicago to Erie. This Minnesota flour to-day is the beginning of a stream that is destined to flow hither from the great Northwest for many years to come. May it be a source of wealth to the enterprise that sends it as well as that which receives it.

A RIOT THERATENED—A small frame stable in the rear of No. 1413 Callowhill street was set on fire last night and partially destroyed. A valuable horse stabled in it, owned by the Conshohocken Stone Quarry Company, was burned to death. It seems that the fire was started purposely to call out certain fire companies that were to be soundly thrashed. On the first intimation that a fight was to take place a large posse of policemen were called out, and the purposed outbreak was prevented. The stable was the property of Mr. James Keim.

Their Reception in Independence Hall.

This morning at 10 o'clock the Albany Zonave Cadets, accompanied by a committee of Oompany D, ist Regiment N. G. of Pennsylvania, marched down Chesnut street, and entered Independence Hall, where they were received by His Honor Mayor Pox. Captain J. Ross Clark, of Company D, introduced the Mayor, who welcomed the visitors to this city in the following words:—

It gives me pleasure, gentlemen, to extend to you a warm and cords welcome to our city. We will have many matters of interest to occupy your attention, but there will be none that will make a deeper impression upon you than the efforts to promote your enjoyment that will be manifested by the corps who have been privileged specially to pay you their attentions whilst you sejourn with us. We have a lively military spirit marking the young men of Philadelphia at the present time but whilst the state of Pennsyluania withholds that legislation which is so essential for the encouragement of this commendable movement, our city authorities are doing overything in their power to fester and promote it.

We believe that a strong military spirit among our citizens, and its development into organization, contributes areally to the aid of the civil power in administering the law, and the greater the organization the less the nocessity for its being called into use. And whatever agencies, whether of movement or example, that will promote this end, it is not only our place but our plessure to welcome, and in that view, and also and principally because of the distinguished reputation of the Albany Zonave Cadets as a model military corps, we extend to you a hearty reception. And we hope that, in addition to the pleasure of your company, the excellence of your drill and dissipline will have its beneficial influence upon your brethren, the volunteers of our city.

I semmend you, gentlemen, to the bespitalities of our citizens, and trust that your visit here may be as agreeable to you so I am sure it a matter of happiness to ne.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR THE LEGISLATURE. - In A New Candidate for the Legislature.—In the Fourth Legislative District, now represented by the iron. Samuel Josephs, a formidable candidate has been put in nomination, pledged to legislative reform. Colonel Christopher kleinz is the opponent of Josephs, and although the latter is supposed to have a hereditary right to this position, the recent downfall of the Emperor Napoleon III has struck terror in the hearts of the adherents of Josephs I, and the expectant legislator, now aged ten is not rethe expectant legislator, now aged ten, is not regarded with the same favor as before by his juvenile garded with the same favor as before by his juvenile playmates. Colonel Kleinz's military record is excellent, as he recruited Company E, of the 5th Cavalry, Pennsylvania Volunteers, at the breaking out of the Kebellion, and served with that organization until October 30, 1862. Owing to his bravery in the action at Fort Magruder, Virginia, he was promoted to the majority of the regiment, and on July 1, 1864, he was appointed lieutenant-colonel on the recommendation of General Kantz, and the other commendating officers. He assumed the comother commanding officers. He assumed the com-mand of the regiment, and remained with it until the close of the war, when he was honorably discharged. He was severely wounded on the 7th of October, 1964, at the battle of Boydton Cress Roads and on other occasions and was honerably discharged by general order, June 7, 1865. In this district last year Colonel Kleinz was a candidate, and would have been elected if he had not been deprived of the vote of the Republihad not been deprived of the vote of the Republicans by some underhand means. The Republican candidate this year has already, or soon will be, withdrawn, and the majority of 2000 Democratic votes be divided. The opposition to Josephs is deepseated, and has its origin in his legislative career, where he has always been found a foremost advocate of every form of corruption.

FOURTH EDITION THE PERIL OF PARIS

The Situation Desperate.

LATE DOMESTIC NEWS

Great Northern

Damage on Land and Sea.

The City of Ragusa.

FROM EUROPE.

Determination to Defend Paris. PARIS, Sept. 8 .- Special to the New York Telegram:-The city this morning is more than usually quiet, but wears, withal, an air of earnestness and determination which, to say the least, is exceedingly impressive. With rumors which are constantly reaching here of the advance of the enemy, the determination to defend the city becomes more and more universal throughout the capital, and this feeling is shared in by all classes of citizens, and is hourly increasing in fervor. The Total Number of Troops now under arms in Paris is one hundred and forty thousand. This includes General Vinoy's troops, the National Guard, and volunteers. The Scaports of Brest, Havre, and Cherbourg are being actively placed in a complete state of defense. Fenra for Bazaine. Fears are expressed here that General Bazaine, who is penned up in Metz, will be forced to capitulate in a few days, as he is now reduced to sore straits for the lack of provisions and ammunition. The French Baltle Fleet. London, Sept. 8 .- Advices of an official character received in this city from Copenhagen state that the French Baltic fleet unanimonsly accept the new Government, and will continue to do duty under the new organization of the Government for the defence of the country. Circular from Gambetta. PARIS, Sept. 8 .- M. Gambetta, Minister of the Interior, has issued a circular to the prefects of departments, bidding them think only of war, and of the restoration of calmness and security, which are now alone productive of strength. "Postpone every thought," says Gambetta, "save that of national defense." The official journal of the republic says no new loan is contemplated. Paris is Provisioned for two months for two millions of men.

Can Paris be Totally Invested? LONDON, Sept. 8 .- The Times' Paris correspondent believes if Paris is invested it will be difficult, if not impossible, to totally prevent communication with the city. The Italian Troubles.

FLORENCE, Sept. 8 .- The reported proclamation of a republic in Italy is false. All is quiet. A deputation from Nice has asked General Garibaldi to proclaim the Italian republic. The report probably originated from this circumstance. King Victor Emanuel announces his obility to maintain order anywhere, including the Papal territory, if need be.

French "Guardians of the Peace." Paris, Sept. 8 .- The new corps called "Guardian of the Peace," has been organized.

The American Recognition. The official journal of the Republic to-day printed a letter from Mr. Washburne, the American Minister, declaring himself authorized to recognize the French republic, and offer the congratulations of the American government and the people, who have with enthusiasm of the proclamation of the republic unattended with bloodshed, and offer every sympathy with the great movement which is big with results and happy for France and mankind. The letter after recalling the traditional friendship between the two countries, closes with congratulations on the choice of Jules Favre as Foreign Minister.

FROM HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Sept. 8, Reports of Wrecks and losses of life in the great gale of Sunday last continue to come in. Besides many vessels known to be lost there are many missing. The schooner W. H. Dow has arrived from Bay Chaleur, having lost one man. The schooner Onward was wrecked at Chester, and four of her crew were drowned.

The keeper of the light-house at Sambro, near Halifax, saw a brigantine strike on the ledge and founder, not a soul being saved. Her name is unknown.

The Damage on Land. The principal damage on land is the destruction of Starr's rope-walk, in Dartmouth, and De Wolf's car-Fishing Schooner Captured.

The American fishing schooner A. W. Arren, of Gloucester, was captured near Sea Wolf Island by the Canadian revenue vessel and taken into Picton FROM NEW ENGLAND.

Arrival of the City of Ragusa at Boston.

Boston, Sept. 8.—The little craft called the City of Ragusa, which sailed from Queenstown about 80 days ago, reached this port to-day, having safely crossed the Atlantic. She is only 3 tons burthen. GENT.'S FURNISHING GOODS.
